Property Description

Brand new construction of twin cabins sitting on a bluff with spectacular jungle views, a peek ocean view and easy access. There is night-time security in the community, extra flat usable land, a nearby creek with at least two waterfalls, and all the good infrastructure like legal town water, electricity, and fiber-optic Internet.The lot also provides good privacy and is perfectly situated between Quepos/Manuel Antonio (with a world-class marina, tons of restaurants, medical services, hardware, shopping, and much more) and Playa Dominical (a bohemian tourist town with great restaurants, surf, and lots of fun things to do).Positioned in the Hills of Portalon, a residential village surrounded by forests and hills and close to the beaches of Matapalo, the property backs up against forests that reach all the way to the top of the coastal ridge. This position makes it both private and a reserve for the visiting animals.
