Property Description

If you are looking to enjoy beautiful ocean views from your mountain perch, then Lot 6 is perfect for you. It offers an excellent view of the Osa waterfront as well as the surrounding mountains and jungle. Because of the front ridge location, the ocean view will never be obstructed by other developments, protecting the value of your dream home. Lot 6 is prepared for development with connection to the water and access to the shared road. Lot 6 is located just outside of the local town of Coronado. There you will find plenty of amenities like grocery stores, cafes, restaurants, and shops to make your daily life easy. A short drive away is the popular tourist location of Uvita, a bustling surf town that caters to local and international visitors. There you will find a greater selection of restaurants and shops. Also nearby is the Ballena National Park, which is the seasonal playground of humpback whales and bottlenose dolphins.
