Property Description

Finca Cuervito with over 77 acres of verdant rolling terrain in pastures, surrounded by forested watershed areas with streams that serve as wildlife corridors is now being offered for sale! Property is a dream for those seeking to grow your own food supply, have some animals and small hobby farm, and place several homes for family and friends, and be within close proximity to one of the world's world class left hand point breaks among several other incredible surf breaks! Location is within minutes to Pavones and in land above the Bay of the Golfo Dulce, which is a marine sanctuary and the ultimate playground for the avid waterman or woman with epic diving, snorkeling, kayaking, boating, sportfishing, spearfishing and so much more... The access and location would be considered a bit off the beaten track located in the souther extreme part of Costa Rica where nature rules over the rest! However the access continues to improve each year, as well as the area being discovered.
