Property Description

This gorgeous half-acre of ocean view land in Ojochal, Costa Rica is set atop the first ridge, perched right over the white-water coastal view. Flat and wide enough to build a dream home in a private area with no one in your ocean view, this is one of those lots that you will regret not buying. The lot is all ready for your luxury house and pool. Probably best laid out for a two-story structure with an infinity pool perched on the edge. This property enjoys expansive views of the Osa Peninsula, Terraba river mouth, Garza Island, Caño Island and the Tres Hermanas. From this exclusive hilltop perch, you will also have panoramic views of Ojochal's mountain foothills. The Calle Perezoso location is close to beaches, dining, shopping, schools, and services, making this a comfortable setting for living day-to-day or for building and income-generating luxury vacation rental property. Water and electricity are available on this property and the driveway to this three-property development has a shared gate.
