Property Description

You will discover this nature-lovers paradise nestled in the jungle, well-located in Ojochal, just minutes away from restaurants, beaches and shopping. These 180-degree ocean and mountain views and the incredibly lush mature landscaping with native tropical plants are what will immediately set this property apart in your mind from all others on the market competing for your attention. Here you will enjoy refreshing ocean and mountain breezes, many months of stunning sunsets, spectacular lightning shows over the Pacific during the rainy season, while on clear evenings you will be blown away by the magnificence of the expansive starry sky. This 3+ bedroom, 2.5 bath house features a bright open floor plan with high ceilings and lots of windows for natural light. There are numerous exquisite and entirely custom artistic touches throughout the house including stained glass transom windows, accent tiles, and laser-cut metalwork.
