Property Description

Looking for a private family home with ample land to enjoy the breathtaking mountain and jungle views in the highly desirable community of Ojochal? This well built three bedroom, three bathroom home with room to expand offers the bonus of a proven track record of rental success. Enjoy your home year round, or part-time while bringing in rental income. Comprised of a house and two lots totaling 3.7 lush acres, this stunning property features year round creeks on both sides and is located at the end of the road in a sought-after community. The main floor offers an open-concept kitchen and living room with two full walls of sliding glass doors and cathedral ceilings. The bedrooms all feature large windows and sliding glass doors, and an additional suite is located upstairs with a private entrance and covered deck. All of the bedrooms have ceiling fans as well as individual A/C units. Step outside to the covered patio area with a spectacular view of the surrounding mountains, and watch the brilliant sky at sunset, or enjoy a family meal.
