Property Description

This stunning, ready-to-build lot is located in a quiet section of Esterones and features a spectacular 180 degree view of the ocean and surrounding valley. Separated from a larger piece of land, this lot was thoughtfully mapped out and truly takes the best advantage of the natural topography. Two building platforms have already been cut and are ready for your dream design. The lot can be expanded to include a third building platform as well. The water meter and connection to electricity are in already in place, and a soil test has been completed (the report will be included with the sale).
